Amendment of section 48
of the Act

33. The Act is amended by substituting for Part VIII, the following new Part —

Substitution of Part VIII of the Act

“Part VIII — Accreditation and Oversight of the Botswana Institute of Chartered Accountants, Professional Accountancy Bodies, Branches or any other Similar Bodies or Trainers (ss 49-51)

Public interest oversight of Institute, professional
bodies, etc.

49. (1) For purposes of this section “public interest obligation” means the responsibility of the Institute, its members, professional accountancy bodies, branches and any other similar professional accountancy bodies or trainers to discharge their functions in the interest of their principals and the community as a whole, as may be determined by the Authority from time to time in its rules.

(2) The Authority shall ensure that the Institute, a professional accountancy body, branch or any other similar professional accountancy body or trainer —

- (a) fulfils its public interest obligations;
  - (b) maintains and promotes the highest standards of professional and business conduct; and
  - (c) develops the accountancy profession and accomplishes the other public interest objectives set forth in its constitution.
- (3) The Institute, professional accountancy body, branch or any other similar professional accountancy body or trainer shall furnish the Authority, within six months of the end of its financial year —
- (a) an annual report of its activities regarding the fulfillment of its public interest obligations; and
  - (b) an assessment or review of performance indicators set forth in the rules.
- (4) If the Authority finds that the Institute, professional accountancy body, branch or any other similar professional accountancy body or trainer is not meeting its obligations under subsection (2), the Authority may, upon 30 days' written notice to the Institute, professional accountancy body, branch or trainer, assume or suspend the operations of the Institute, professional accountancy body, branch or any other professional accountancy body or trainer until such obligations have been met.
- (5) The Authority may, with the approval of the Minister, recover from the Institute, professional accountancy body, branch or any other similar professional accountancy body or trainer all or part of the expenses necessarily incurred in connection with assumption of the public interest obligations of the Institute, professional accountancy body, branch or any other similar professional accountancy body or trainer under this Act.

Accreditation of Institute, professional accountancy bodies, etc.

50. (1) The Authority shall accredit the Institute, professional accountancy body or branch or any other similar professional accountancy body or trainer, upon application supported by evidence that the Institute, professional accountancy body or branch or any other similar professional accountancy body or trainer is a member of the International Federation of the Accountants or other local or international professional bodies and is in compliance with its membership obligations.
- (2) The Institute, professional accountancy body, branch or any other similar professional accountancy body or trainer shall not establish a branch of the accountancy profession unless it has obtained accreditation from the Authority for the particular purpose.
- (3) To qualify for accreditation, the Institute, professional accountancy body, branch or any other similar professional accountancy body or trainer shall demonstrate to the satisfaction of the Authority that —

- (a) the Council of the Institute, professional accountancy body, branch or any other similar professional accountancy body or trainer has passed a resolution to establish the branch, before the application for accreditation of the branch by the Authority;
- (b) it complies with the requirements for professional development and achievement of professional competence in line with international best practice;
- (c) it has appropriate mechanisms for ensuring that its members participate in continuing educational and professional development in line with international best practice;
- (d) it has mechanisms to ensure that its members are disciplined, where appropriate;
- (e) it has appropriate mechanisms in place to discharge its public interest obligation under section 49;
- (f) it keeps a register or registers of its members in the form determined by the Board of the Authority, or the Council of the Institute, professional accountancy body, branch or any other similar professional accountancy body or trainer; and
- (g) it meets other requirements as stipulated by the Authority in line with international best practice.

(4) To retain its accreditation, the Institute, professional accountancy body, branch or any other similar professional accountancy body or trainer shall, at least once a year, at a time to be determined by the Authority, satisfy the Authority that it continues to comply with the requirements of accreditation as provided in subsection (3).”

Cancellation of accreditation

51. (1) The Authority may, where it has decided to cancel the accreditation of the Institute, professional accountancy body, branch or any other similar professional accountancy body or trainer —

- (a) give written notice to the Institute, professional accountancy body, branch or any other similar professional accountancy body or trainer of its intention to cancel the accreditation of the Institute, the concerned professional accountancy body, branch or any other similar professional accountancy body or trainer, stating the reasons for such cancellation; and

(b) afford the Institute, professional accountancy body, branch or any other similar professional accountancy body or trainer a period of not less than 21 days and not more than 30 days within which to submit grounds for its accreditation not to be cancelled.

(2) If the Authority considers that the cancellation of accreditation under this section would not be in the best interests of the public, the accounting and auditing profession or the members of particular branch of the accountancy profession, it may, in writing, extend the accreditation on such condition as it considers appropriate.

(3) The accreditation of the Institute, professional accountancy body, branch or any other similar professional accountancy body or trainer shall lapse automatically if it —

(a) ceases to exist; or

(b) fails to pay any prescribed fee or portion thereof within the period prescribed by the Authority.”.

Amendment of section 52 of the Act

34. Section 52 of the Act is amended —

(a) in subsection (1), by inserting immediately after the word “entities” appearing in paragraphs (a) and (b), the words “or other entities, including a partly or wholly funded public body”; and

(b) in subsection (2), by inserting immediately after the word “entity” the words “or other entity, including a partly or wholly funded public body”.
